MEDICINAL.

A WOMAN'S PRAYER.

It is notable that in the despondency caused by womanly diseases, there seems to many a suffering woman no way of escape from pain except at the price of life itself. It would be sad to record such a story of struggle and suffering except for the fact cept for the fact that in such dire distress many a woman has found a way back to health and happiness by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite

Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This great remedy for womanly ills has well been called "A godsend to weak and slck women." It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"Your medicine almost raised me from the dead," writes Mra. Edwin H. Gardner, of Egypt, Plymouth Co., Mass., Box 14. "My urine was like brick dust, and I had pain all over me and such a dragging feeling it seemed I could not do my house work. I had to sit down to wash the dishes, even. In the year 1891 I was so sick I did not care to live and prayed many times that God would take me. One day I found a little book. I read it and wrote to Dr. Plerce, and in few days received an answer. I decided to try his medicine, and to-day I am a well woman. I have no backnehe, no headpehe, no pain at all. 2 used always to have beadaches previously to the monthly period and such pain that I would roll on the floor in agony. I took three bottles of Dr. Plerce's Favorlie Prescription and three vials of Dr. Plerce's Pleasant Fellets, and was completely cured."

DEATH OF ARCHBISHOP COR-RIGAN

The Most Reverend Michael Augustine Corrigan, Archbishop of New York, died at 11:05 o'clock last night at his residence, Fittieth street and she says she has friends. Madison Avenue, New York. Twertyfive minutes before that time he had shaken hands with his secretary, Father Curley, and told him that he was feeling better than at any time since his filiness.

At ten minutes to 11 the archbishop summoned in a fairt voice the two siters from Et. Vincent's Hospital who have been constantly with him since he was attacked by pneumonia. They were in the next room. "O, siter, I am feeling wo.se than I have ever felt," said the archbishop. One of the sisters, who is regarded as the best trained nurse of the sisters in this country, went to his side. The archbishop was just bresthing and very

Following the usual custom in such cases, it is expected that immediately the news of the archbishop's death be the news of the archosnop's death becomes known in Rome, the senior ecclesiastical authority in the archdiocese will be designated to act as administrator of the archdiocese pending the appointment by the Pope of a successor to Archbishop Corrigan,

Archbishop Corrigan was a native of

New Jersey, having been born in New-ark. Augus: 13, 1839. Hisparents were in comfortable circumstances. Both his father and mother were born in Leinster, Ireland, and came to Ameri-Leinster, Ireland, and came to America when young. At an early age the son was sent to St. Mary's College, in Wilmington, Del. After a stay of two years in this college he was sent to Mount St. Mary's College, Emmittourg, Md. From the outset he took the lead in his classes. In 1859 he completed his course of studies at Emmits. pleted his course of studies at Emmits-burg. Shortly afterward the desire to enter the priesthood, which he had en-tertained for several years, took the form of a resolution and he sailed for form of a resolution and he sailed for Europe with the intention of entaring the American College in Rome. He was one of the 12 students with whom the college was opened. Having devoted a year to preliminary studies, including Italian and Hebrew, he began his course of theology. His progress was now apply that soon afterward. was so rapid that soon afterward, when the doors of the college were thrown open to the students of the Propaganda in the Irish and Greek colleges, he won a number of medals. In the college he was notable for scrup-large and the college are industry, close and ulous obedience, industry, close ap-plication and consideration for those about him. He was a frequent com-municant. He was ordained priest by Cardinal Petriza, in the Lateran Basili-ca.
